City Market Public Conversation Set

(LANSING) – With the subsidy eliminated and the City Market closing, Mayor Schor has announced a public conversation to engage the public in ideas for this building moving forward.

“This is an important property on our waterfront and we can’t let this building sit vacant for too long,” said Mayor Schor. “We are putting all options on the table and welcome the voices of Lansing residents with their ideas and thoughts for this important space. I look forward to hearing their thoughts and comments.”

The public conversation will take place Thursday, July 26 at 6:00-8:00 PM at the Lansing City Market.
