Statement from Mayor Andy Schor Regarding Lansing Housing Commission's (LHC) Announcement

Lansing, MI – “The executive director of the LHC has submitted his resignation to the LHC board, and Doug Fleming, an affordable housing expert, has been named interim director. I am confident that the important work of bringing these Lansing public housing units up to code will continue and be completed with haste. I wish Martell Armstrong the best in his future endeavors.

While there has been significant changeover in the LHC leadership in last few weeks, with two new board members and a new executive director appointed, I will ensure that the city works with the LHC to ensure safe, accessible, and appropriate public housing in Lansing,” said Mayor Andy Schor.
