Outside salesperson: An "outside salesperson" is one who solicits business while working away from the employer's place of business as a full-time salesperson. If the individual is required to spend a stated period of time selling at the employer's place of business as part of their job, the individual is not an outside salesperson. If the individual only performs incidental activities there, such as writing up and handing in orders, the individual qualifies for the expense deduction. A salesperson whose principal activity is service and delivery is not an "outside salesperson." An inside salesperson who makes incidental outside calls and sales is not an "outside salesperson."

Line 7 instructions: Business expenses reported on line 4 of federal Form 2106 are allowed as an expense on the Lansing's return only when the individual employee qualifies as an outside salesperson when the expenses were incurred.

Meal expenses: Under the Uniform City Income Tax Ordinance meal expenses are allowed only when incurred while away from home. No deduction is allowed for entertainment unless incurred by an outside salesperson.
